in English, Spanish, and Haitian Creole (sponsors can use the Word documents available in download FANS with these translations).

2. APBS utilizes a multilingual tagline advertising the availability of free language assistance services for people with limited English proficiency (LEP) and assistance for individuals with disabilities in English and at least the top five (5) languages spoken by LEP people in the service area. This notice appears on the homepage of the school meal programs, posted in areas where school meal programs are offered, and distributed within parent orientation materials. Cafeteria bulletin board and front office of the school. Sample multilingual tagline notices can be found at <https://www.fns.usda.gov/cr/assistance-tagline-translations>.

3. APBS has an estimate of 20% increase of new families who only speak Spanish in their service area; this estimate was obtained from the registrar's office.

4. The sponsor has identified 15-20% of new families for the upcoming school year.

5. The sponsor assures that no program participant will be denied/delayed access to the program due to limited English proficiency or language barriers.

6. APBS has prepared cafeteria bilingual personel to provide language assistance services in the school meal programs.

This institution is an equal opportunity provider.
